

Divine Mercy Sunday
Second Sunday of Easter
28th April 2019

Today is celebrated as Divine Mercy Sunday, a feast day of great joy and peace in the Mercy of God.

Pope Francis says:

“The Lord wants us to belong to a church that knows how to open her arms and welcome everyone, that is not a house for the few but a house for everyone where all can be renewed, transformed, sanctified by his love- the strongest and the weakest, sinners, the indifferent, those who feel discouraged or lost”
God's Mercy is for Everyone.

The feast of Mercy will be celebrated in St Cronan's Church Brackenstown at 2.45pm concluding with Holy Mass at 5.30pm. All Welcome

THANK YOU!

Thank you!

The priests of the parish would like to thank everyone from our Lady Queen of Heaven church and St Finian's church for your kind donations from the Easter Due Envelopes.

Child Safeguarding Training and Garda Vetting

Child safeguarding and Garda Vetting is mandatory for all volunteers in our parish. We are holding a child safeguarding training night on Tuesday 30th April at 7.30pm and all parish volunteers are expected to attend. Garda vetting forms will be given to all group members on the night.

Baptisms on the following

April 28th

May 12th and May 26th

Welcome into our faith community all children who will be baptised this Sunday.

“Children's Liturgy of the Word

Next week, a Children's Liturgy of the Word will again be held in the Oratory during the 11.30 am Mass. The Liturgy is particularly aimed at children from First Communion to Confirmation. Before the regular Mass Readings, with the permission of their parents, children will be invited into the Oratory to a child friendly proclamation of the Gospel. They will return to their places in time for the Offertory Procession.”

Congrats to Marcella Mc Geogh on winning our Easter raffle last Sunday. Thank you to everyone who bought a ticket and supported our fundraiser. A total of €335 was raised.
