

THE EIGHTEENTH
SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

31ST JULY 2016

Luke 12:13-21

*Thus will it be for all who store up treasure for themselves
but are not rich in what matters to God*

If we owned every dress in the mall
but we did not clothe
the naked,
if we
sipped tasty wines
but didn't give a cup of cool water,
if we took time to rake in money
but did not spread
love,
then, what would we have?

Christ, what matters to you?

Make us want that more than anything else.

Parish Pilgrimage for Year of Mercy

It is the wish of Pope Francis that a pilgrimage be part of this year of Mercy. In response we are organising a pilgrimage to Our Lady's Island, Wexford on Saturday 13th August. This is one of our very ancient pilgrim sites where people gathered to pray in times of difficulty or persecution ; truly "Holy Ground". Please leave your name in the parish office if you are interested. More details of transport and cost will follow.

Head to Krakow: Young people from Dublin Parishes who together with a Team of 10 from the Archdiocese of Dublin travelled to World Youth Day in Krakow on Monday 25th July. Our parish has five people attending. Archbishop Diarmuid Martin came to Our Lady Queen of Heaven Church to pray with our youth before they set off on their journey. Pictures of this event can be seen on the parish website.

BANK HOLIDAY MONDAY

Please note that Mass will be at 11am on bank holiday Monday 1st August (instead of the usual time of 10am) 1pm Mass as usual at Our Lady Queen of Heaven.

Enjoy your weekend.
