Gianna Care is a non-profit, voluntary and confidential service providing free practical help and true compassion to those experiencing unexpected pregnancies and those suffering after abortion. Gianna Care offers pregnancy testing, ultrasound scans, pregnancy counselling and post-abortion help to those who need support.

Fund-raising for these services is urgent if this important work is to continue.

On September 3rd and 4th, after each of the Parish Masses, refreshments and a raffle will be held in the Oratory. Please drop in, meet our team and contribute to our service.

Congratulations

Well done to the students of the parish who received their leaving certificate results last week. We hope that they may continue their journey in life making the right decisions with the Holy Spirit to guide them
